Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 13-15 and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 13, it is not clear which angle of inclination is being referred to. Further, as claim 13 depends from itself, the claim is indefinite.

Claim 18 depends from claim 19 and lacks antecedent basis for the lower portion and the upper portion and is therefore indefinite.

In claim 19 it is not clear if the tracks are secured with the lugs inclined toward or away from the direction of the travel of the track. The claim should set forth that the lugs are selectively oriented based on the intended use of the track in conjunction with the indicia formed on the track.

3. Claims 13 and 18 will be examined as if they depended from claim 12, which is the apparent intent of the Applicant.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3617

5. Claims 1-5, 8, 10, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Simmons (U.S. Pat. No. 4795211)

Simmons (newly cited) discloses an endless track comprising a base and traction lugs 22 which extend across the width of the track. The lugs 22 may be integrally formed with the base (column 4, lines 37-40) and are set at an angle of 30-75 degrees from the base, or an inclination away from the direction of travel of at least 15 degrees. With respect to claim 8, the lugs have a height of 1-2 inches.

6. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Bonmartini (newly cited).

As shown at least in figures 1 and 13, the lugs 26 are integrally formed with and extend from the base of the track inclined toward the direction of travel.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 8. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bonmartini.

Those of ordinary skill in the art could readily determine a suitable height of the lugs based on the intended use of the vehicle and the environment in the tracks are to be used, and therefore a height of 0.5 inches to 3 inches would have been obvious to give the vehicle improved traction.

Allowable Subject Matter

- 9. Claims 7 and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
- 10. Claim 18 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
- 11. Claims 19 and 20 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

12. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 12-20 have been considered but are most in view of the new ground of rejection.

Conclusion

13. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The references show other endless tracks having lugs. Note especially the patents to Cartwright, Masaoka et al, and Husted.

Art Unit: 3617

14. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
